Obituary

Sis. Uraner Booth was born on May 27, 1945 in Waco, Texas, to her proud parents, Franklin and Ruby Nobles. Her family relocated to California in 1951. Uraner is the eldest of 6 children.

She was taught about the goodness of the Lord at an early age, and dedicated her life to Christ at the age of 10. She was baptized at North Oakland Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. A. O. Bell. She later moved her membership to Bethel Missionary Baptist Church pastored by the Rev. Herbert Guice, until she payed a visit to Calvary Temple C.O.G.I.C in mid-June of 1965. It was then she got saved and later filled with the precious Holy Ghost. She remained an active member of Calvary Temple for over 51 years.

Uraner's formal education was her in the Bay Area. She graduated from Encinal High School in Alameda, California. She then took up Business at Contra Costa College in San Pablo, California. She also took classes at U.C. Berkeley.

She went on to work for Del Monte Foods in San Francisco, California for over 33 years.

Her Motto

"I've been running for Jesus a long time and I'm not tired yet.

"They that wait upon the Lord
shall renew their strength.

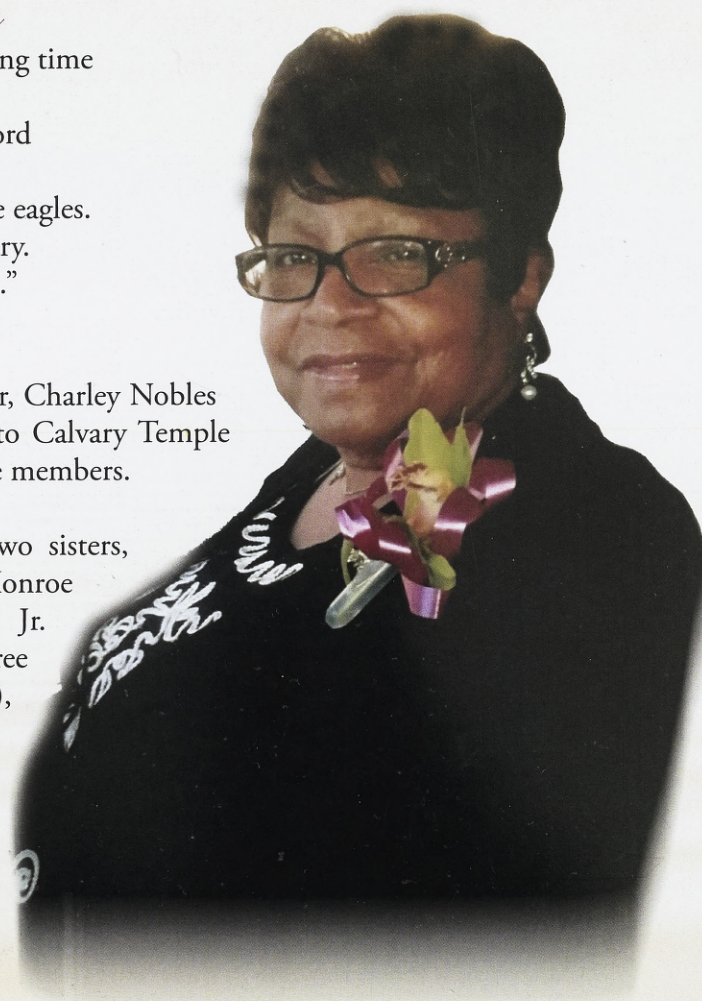

They shall mount up on wings like eagles.

They shall run and not be weary.

They shall walk and not faint."

Uraner was preceded in death by one sister, Charley Nobles Graham. Charley introduced her family to Calvary Temple C.O.G.I.C. where they later became active members.

Uraner leaves to cherish her memory, two sisters, Linda Nobles DeVaughn and Eva Buggs (Monroe Buggs); two brothers, Franklin Nobles Jr. (Grace Nobles) and Warren Nobles; three daughters, Jessica Rucker (Ryan Rucker), Rachelle Williams (Edward Williams III), and Shaunte' Coleman (Sean Coleman); and five grandchildren, Royce Rucker, Lauren Williams, Brandon Williams, Ryleigh Coleman, and Sean Coleman; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Acknowledgements

We are truly grateful for all your expressions of love and support during our time of bereavement. Your presence speaks volumes to the character of who our mother was as a sister, an aunt, and a friend. We are blessed to know she meant so much to so many. May her love, laughter, and passion to sing live on in your hearts and your memories until we see her again in eternity.
